

Dearest customer,

First of all, let us express our sincere gratitude for your long-term support of our little shop. It is thanks to such enthusiastic fans that we are here!

We want to let you know that we've stocked up on a ton of comics, books, games, and other stuff that's been unavailable lately. We've also managed to find a few rare pieces that might interest you as a comic geek.

The main and most interesting new item is definitely The Bistro, an absolute rarity, which many a comic book collector is interested in. And because we value you so much, we wanted to offer this issue to you first!

If you are interested in coming to see the comic and have a chat about a possible price, please stop by Cosmix, our store in Anděl, Prague. The exact address is Staropramenná 12. We'll look forward to your visit.

Sincerely,

Alice Králíčková
COSMIX
